1. On 28 June, Joe O'Neill, Legislative Counsel, called to ask if we could provide any assistance to Mr. Richard Kaufman, an economist with the Senate Joint Economic Committee chaired by Senator Proxmire. Kaufman is doing some research on the USSR economy. I explained to O'Neill that [REDACTED] does not do any indexing of our reports but offered to send him tables of contents and any other data that may be useful. Attached is my memorandum sent to O'Neill the same day, transmitting the [REDACTED] O'Neill said he would be in touch if additional information or assistance was needed.

2. On 2 August, O'Neill called to ask if we could send him samples of tables of content for our USSR economic reports. The same day I handcarried to him tables of content for all [REDACTED] and ad hoc reports published in June and July plus the two [REDACTED] reference aids which list all ad hoc reports published January 1972 through December 1973 and the Reference Aid: [REDACTED] O'Neill indicated he would take this material to a Monday, 5 August, meeting with the Senate Committee.
